Card of Thanks.

In endeavoring to express our appreciation of the many acts of kindness extended by friends in our recent bereavement, words fail us.
Would that we had language sufficient to express even in a measure our kind feelings towards those whose unselfish efforts, faithful friendship and loving sympathy, tended to make us more consolable in the untimely loss of our beloved nephew, Sydney Whitlow. The sympathy, thus extended by both word and action, has been a ray of light in this our dark hour of sore affliction.

MR. AND MRS. LEO JACOBSON,
Mrs. H. L. JOSEPH.

Death of Jos. Courier.

A telegram was received in this city Wednesday afternoon announcing the death of Jos. Courier, which occurred at his home in Port Tampa Tuesday night, May 21st. Mr. Courier was 38 years of age. The cause of his death was paralysis of the heart.

For a number of years Mr. Courier resided in this city, and for a time was manager of the S. E. Bond Co's stores. Later he moved to Fernandina, and then to Port Tampa at which place he was employed in the railway shops.

The remains were brought to Palatka Thursday morning and the funeral was held from St. James M. E. church, south, at 2:30 Thursday afternoon. Rev. J. F. Bell conducting the services. Interment was in West View cemetery.

The pall bearers were J. N. Blackwell, E. W. Wattle, A. L. Leach, D.
W. Ramsaur, city, and W. P. Carnes and D. A. Burton, of Tampa.

Mr. Courier was a son-in-law of E.
Windisch of this city. He is survived by his wife, and three children, Mary, John and Joseph Courier, Jr., besides other relatives to all of whom sympathy is extended.

The Pythian Sisters desire to thank those who contributed to the success of their entertainment Wednesday evening, and assure all that their kindness is much appreciated.

The musicale given at the residence of Mrs. R. H. Hanley last evening by the music class of Mrs. Jessie M. Charles was well patronized and a nice little sum added to the organ fund of the Presbyterian church. The program which was published in our last issue was referred in such a manner as to reflect much credit on Mrs. Charles' ability as a teacher. Mrs. Charles was ably assisted by Miss Pansy Devereux, who sang in her usual pleasing manner.

tritious or healthful than Argo Red

A Pleasing Performance.

The 3-act play entitled "A King's Daughter," presented at the Armory club rooms Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Palatka Temple of Pythian Sisters, was a signal success, and brought out one of the largest and most representative audiences yet assembled in the Armory.

The characters in the play, twelve in number, were portrayed by well-known young ladies of the city and each and every one of the cast deserved much praise for their excellent acting.

Miss Myrtle Holden, as Mrs. Graham and Miss Lula Reed as Aunt Clarissa, were splendid. Miss Minnie Bucky in the role of Rebecca Spencer, a very dignified spinster who thought herself "one of the girls," was a complete success.

The king's daughters, impersonat-ed by Misses Rena Brown, Grace Keating, Essie Wall, Winifred Haughton—a kodak fiend, Inez Holden, and Ruth Keating—a poetically inspired lassie, were excellent, while Miss Irene Gardner as Polly Graham a matter-of-fact little miss who would like to be a king's daughter, captured the audience completely.

Miss Marjorie Barstow, as Nan Graham, Mrs. Graham's niece, acted her part with much expression.
Between the acts Mrs. L. A. Smith and Miss Ida Leib gave vocal solos, which were much appreciated; so much so that each received encores.
Prof. J. B. Jarvis was the accompanist.

The matinee for children Wednesday afternoon was well attended.
Mrs. M. S. Brown, the most excellent chief of the Palatka Temple of Pythian Sisters, under whose direction the play was given, deserves much credit for her untiring efforts in making the entertainment such a great success.

And the young ladies who participated are also to be congratulated upon their meritorious efforts.

Musical and Exhibit.

The popular Peninsula quartette from the school for the Deaf and Blind, under the management of the musical director Prof. R. L. Parks, will render an interesting program of vocal and instrumental music at the Armory, Wednesday night, May 22nd, at 8 o'clock.

The program consisting of choice selections from the masters will be interspersed with dramatic reading and comic song. An attractive feature of the program will be a blind boy reading from raised print at the rate of two hundred words per minute.

The entertainment is something new and novel and the quartette is being greeted everywhere by large enthusiastic audiences.

Mrs. D. G. Sanford and Mrs. C. H.
Wigg have opened a dressmaking parlor on Central Lemon street, and are in position to execute all kinds of sewing at reasonable prices. 2t

A Man's House Is His Castle

It should be fortified, protected with good paint. Ten houses are burnt up by slow decay, from not being properly painted, to every one that is destroyed by fire. And yet it costs but little to keep a house well painted, if the right kind of paint is used. The best painter in the world cannot do a good job with poor paint, but give a good painter

Queen Quality

FINE apparel is nearly always light apparel. And so it is with shoes. Every "Queen Quality" Shoe is as light as the service for which it is intended will permit.
A woman's shoe should be light in weight and flexible to the foot to enable her to walk in an easy, graceful manner.

This is one of the especial charms that has made "Queen Quality" Shoes so popular. They combine lightness with strength. We only ask the favor of fitting you with one of the many fashionable and beautiful Oxfords we have on display.
